Subject: re: The Commonsense Candidate Resource

Hi Chris

Thanks so much for the encouragement. I appreciated being able to sit with back in January to run over my plans. It was reassuring to hear from someone with your experience that I was on the right track. The Bulletin's approach to things the last few days have made life a little interesting. Melinda and I have just moved from Kindy to Primary School and are very much aware of the need to develop thicker skins and not allow ourselves to get caught up in the game! We're thinking of making our home a media free home from next week just so we can maintain sanity and calm for our kids.

I was confronted by some interesting characters yesterday at polling booths, never expected people to be so intense about so little. Fortunately I'm from the school that believes "any publicity is good publicity".

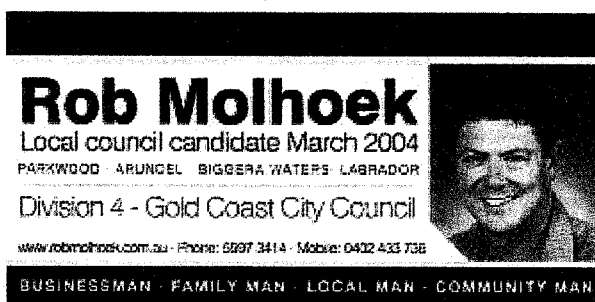

Anyway again thanks for your advice and encouragement.

Warmest regards
