Hi Brian,

Met with David and Sue again today to recap and agree on activity for the New Year. We have set a next meeting date with all candidates for Thursday 8 Jan. at Quadrant. Advice of that date together with a campaign check list I will email to the data base next week.

I'll also need to establish a realistic budget at the earliest opportunity so we can develop some idea of just what can be achieved and particularly where best to allocate resources. I have Roxanne Scott in on Monday at 9am to begin building a Campaign Committee from the ground up by the look of things.

Can you give me a call please when Tony confirms he has the Trust Fund in place and we can begin to follow up on honors.

Have a great weekend.

Chris M.
