EXHIBIT No. 238
[Signature] CLERK

Good afternoon,

I was wondering if I could obtain a copy of your "watered-down version of the submission" you sent to some residents and the Minister for Local Government.

I am not particularly active member of the community in the past however I am starting to feel that there is a lot going on that I am not happy with development on the Gold Coast. I would like to get the facts first before I jump to any conclusions.

Kind regards,

Carol Drake

Each month I send this newsletter article and the 'uncensored' version by email to many hundreds of people. The email version is often more extensive, arrives a bit earlier, allows you to copy and paste articles and to view and print the articles at whatever font size is good for your eyes! The uncensored version contains information about topics of great interest that I am prevented from reporting in this official censored version. So if you would also like to receive the newsletter articles by e-mail please send a request to me at pyoung@goldcoast.qld.gov.au The email list is not used for any other purpose.

Subject: submission to Local Government Minister Desley Boyle

Hello

Please find attached an amended version of a submission I have today despatched to the Minister for Local Government, the Honourable Desley Boyle MP. In this document I seek to establish that there are facts and circumstances that must arouse the concern of the Minister sufficiently to launch a public enquiry into the Gold Coast City Council.

I have unfortunately had to delete lots of names and huge amounts of detail from this version of the document so as to make the best attempt to protect myself from any defamation charges. This diminishes the quality of the document somewhat, but adds weight to my claim that the Minister needs to call an enquiry and have these matters (and others) brought out into the open - without the fear of strategic defamation suits to shut people up.

The section most heavily edited is principally about Councillors voting on matters involving developers who contributed to the trust fund. The real facts in that section are particularly intriguing. I provided to the Minister details of development proposals, election fund contributions, voting behaviour, etc.

My intention is certainly not to defame any person or entity, and should any person or entity feel that I have done so then I invite them to contact me in the first instance requesting a retraction or other means to address that concern. My principle and over-riding interest is that the public interest must be served.

My feeling is that the Queensland Government will be disinterested in launching yet another enquiry, especially into a Local Government. With all due respect to the State Government and its Ministers, I believe they have a very considerable obligation to defend and act in the public interest, which can only be served by undertaking a public enquiry.

I encourage you to read this document with an open mind and to make your own decision. Can you, and will you, help?

Yours sincerely

Peter Young
