Hi Chris,

Before you set up your schedule for next Monday/Tuesday I would like to try to organise my meeting with you. I told you that I would be available Monday afternoon or all day Tuesday but would it be possible to make it last thing either on Monday or Tuesday?

I will call you later to discuss.

Hi Chris,

Below is the email I received from Burleigh Print and Copy for the DL "Calenders". As I told you this morning my idea is to send them out in the mail as a how to vote card which includes electoral information such as : locations of polling booths, opening hours, pre-poll information and how to get a postal vote form.

This becomes something that is practical information for voters and therefore is likely to be kept on the fridge ready for election day.

regards,

Greg

Thanks for the quote Simon. This is something I will need for early March so I don't plan on making the decision for another week or so. I also need to see how it will fit into my budget. I'll give you a call if I decide to go ahead with it.

Thanks again.

Subject: brox status

Hi Chris,

Just wanted to catch up with the status on a couple of things.

1. Photography - the weather is fine, lets go for it while we can!
2. Car slogans - I want to get it done a.s.a.p, do you have ideas or should I just go ahead and talk to the guy with my own ideas?
3. Brochure - I know we are waiting for photos (unless you think mine were ok) but I really would like to get something out into mail boxes by next week. If not the brochure how about another flyer or letter like I did last time?

I'm starting to feel that it is time to move. The door knocking is excellent but it is not getting me out there quickly enough by itself.

Please advise.

Thanks and regards

Hi Greg/Sue,

I will have available for your approval tomorrow after 2.30pm (or sometime Friday) finished artwork of your business cards, letterhead, corflute poster, giveaway notepads and DL brochure in full colour mock up form. I would really appreciate your comments Sue if you can spare some time. I'd like to have all these items printed and ready for use next week at latest.

Could you let me know what time suits you Sue as Greg and I are perhaps a bit more flexible on timing?

Hi Chris,

Thanks for the email with the new division12 map. However, there are two points I would like to clarify with you.

1. As I told you at our last meeting, I am not sure that I need a map on the brochure but your suggestion of the polling booth locations being placed on the map does make it worthwhile. So if that can be added I'm ok with it.

2. The suburbs of Stephens and Andrews no longer exist and have been replaced with Varsity Lakes (formerly Stephens) and West Burleigh (formerly Andrews). I don't want to be picked up on this minor point if possible, can you change it on the map?

regards

Greg

Hi Sue,

Got through to Max on his mobile this morning after I spoke to you. Asked him about the postal vote info, he said they were getting it put together and it would be available electronically. Once it is done he said I could get a copy.

Told him I thought it was a bit rough on Saturday and I was disappointed for him after all the work he had put in, he said "that's how it goes sometimes". He asked me "How is your campaigning going, are you out there full on?" I told him I was and the responses I am getting are extremely positive. Also that I spoke to my accountant yesterday and he is in the Burleigh Chamber of Commerce. He said that the Friends of Burleigh were not helping Burleigh's cause at all and he thought Irene's support would not extent past the group.

Max couldn't talk long. He said he had a meeting with someone in a couple of minutes, but he would get back to me about the postal votes.

Below is a copy of the email I sent him last night.

Hi Max,

Susan and I were thinking of you over the weekend after all the hard work you put in to your campaign. It was disappointing to see someone who worked to identify the concerns of the area, met the voters door to door and ran an honest grass roots campaign get overtaken by the media hype surrounding the Premier (or should I say President!). We both thought you would be a good representative for the area and I personally believe you have the potential to reach a position in Cabinet or even further. Please consider standing for the seat again next time as I truly believe it will be a different result.

As an aside to the election that is gone - there is another coming! Today I read in the Sun Newspaper an ad from Margaret May. It was titled McPherson News and there was a bit of a surprise. There is going to be a redistribution in the electorate. They are going to create a new electorate called BONNER. It will run between Broadbeach and Christine Avenue. Why don't you consider running for Federal. As a new seat there is nobody to try to knock off, and you already have the profile to win it. Anyway, just a thought - you may have had enough of politics for a while!

Max, how can I get the postal voter list from you? Tim said last week that it would become a public document after the election was over and it was ok for me to get it.

Anyway, hope you get to take a well deserved break with your family for a while.
