

'She's not fit to be a Councillor'

Peter Beattie, Qld Premier

Peter Beattie recently said that Division 6 Councillor Dawn Crichtlow was 'cowardly and un-Australian' for accusing his government of mispending $2Million on the annual Schoolies Festival - an investment which returned $60Million to the local economy.

"Realistically, I think she's not fit to be a Councillor," he added.

DUMP DAWN
'Southport Citizens for change'

Authorised by S. Hill, 18 Egerton St, Southport Qld 4215

Article: Gold Coast Bulletin, December 2, 2003

by Fiona Hamilton
Suffern supporter

PREMIER Peter Beattie yesterday told Councillor Dawn Crichtlow to 'get out of the gutter' after she accused the Government of spending money on Schoolies, even because Mr Beattie's own sons attended one of the veteran camps.

In a scathing speech at the veterans' camp, Beattie said he thinks Crichtlow is a 'total idiot' and 'should be in a mental hospital'.

Beattie said he would not spend $1 million dollars on the festival, but he would spend $2 million on the festival, which he said would create 100 jobs.

Beattie said he would not spend $1 million dollars on the festival, but he would spend $2 million on the festival, which he said would create 100 jobs.

CRIME & MISCONDUCT COMMISSION
No. 2003-5 Date 29 Oct 05
IN THE MATTER OF:

OP GRAND

EXHIBIT No. 149
[Handwritten Signature]
CLERK