Email sent

Perfect. Send it to her

Did you read the whole lot mate. Is everything spot on?

Yes. All good. You should also put the court reply in

Okay, I'll forward it from the register email

Cool. Can't wait to see the response and lord help her if she bags me. Lol

Are you sure it's okay to mention the jail thing? Have you reviewed it so that there is no chance of any threats in that email?

Lol

Maybe change it to say that there is no way you are going to try and have me put in jail on false pretenses

Ok

Sent. Please doublecheck again mate.

All good mate. Send away and await the scathing eruption from her

Haha lol

Sent. Awaiting response
