IeMR Inappropriate Access – Severity and Actions Guide

The following criteria establishes the levels of severity and subsequent action following inappropriate access to ieMR by an employee.

Category Guide	Breach Severity	Action	CCC Recommendations
Blue	One or more instances of viewing patient with same surname when no direct relationship be established	<ul> <li>Discuss with Line Manager to understand reason for access.</li> <li>If Line Manager substantiates access in accordance with role, no action to be taken, or</li> <li>If line manager doesn't substantiate access in accordance with role, access will be categorised into the below breach severity categories.</li> </ul>	If access is substantiated, then no reporting action is required.
Green	One instance of viewing self or immediate family with consent	An email is sent to the employee and an informal meeting with the Line Manager	<ul> <li>Level 2 (Section 40)</li> <li>Repeated computer misuse (s 408E) that involves access on data or the information / data of immediately family (with consolificer to his / her own data after receiving a formal warning.</li> <li>IF there is any indication that the information gained has been matters, domestic violence, benefit or detriment to another) C matters become LEVEL 1 and dealt with accordingly.</li> <li>Reporting Obligation</li> <li>The public official can commence dealing with these matters immediately schedule.</li> </ul>
Yellow	Multiple instances of viewing self-and/or immediate family with consent	Please Explain Letter issued to the employee and a formal meeting with Line Manager
Orange	One instance of viewing of an ieMR record that is not connected with their official duties.	Please Explain Letter issued to the employee and a formal meeting with Line Manager	<ul> <li>Level 1 (Section 40)</li> <li>Involves an offence of computer<sup>[1]</sup> hacking and misuse under been an unauthorised disclosure; or systemic access to date breach of that person's privacy (i.e. no consent) whether ther</li> <li>Reporting Obligation</li> </ul>
Red	Multiple instances of viewing an ieMR record that is not connected with their official duties	Show Cause Letter issued to the employee	These matters are to be reported to the CCC without unreasonabl of the complaint by way of: • letter, • email, or • facsimile transmission
Purple	Modified own ieMR medical record and/or other ieMR medical record that is not connected with their official duties	Show Cause Letter issued to the employee	<ul> <li>The public official must take no other action in relation to the comp</li> <li>maintain the integrity of any possible evidence,</li> <li>implement public interest discloser protection, or</li> <li>meet another statutory obligation under another act, includin the Queensland Police Service.</li> <li>The public official may commence dealing with a matter notwithsta has lapsed since the complaint was first provided to the CCC.</li> </ul>

&lt;sup>[1]</sup> Computer – any device where data has been stored (a storage device); or any device that allows access to a storage device whether or not the storage device is held by the DCSYW i.e. 'cloud' storage, or access via a web portal to a database housed and / or maintained by another entity. <sup>[2]</sup> Ibid.