Mr MacSporran

That concludes our public forum. Thank you all for those that participated. And it's now up to us to distil from the written submissions and the oral evidence we've heard to distil further the issues and then produce a report.

As I mentioned earlier in the forum today, if anyone desires to make any further written submissions, we'd ask that you do so within the next fourteen days, and we're more than happy to take on-board whatever you might want to submit. Other than that we'll get on with our work. Thank you once again for attending.
